Porter, Demarcus Fiske

Born 1838, Was the son of;

Andrew Walker Porter

Born June 9, 1802

Mary McKee Morrison, his parents were married February 10, 1823, in Mecklinburg District, N. C.

Demarcus Fiske Porter Grew to man hood in the north west corner of Winston County, Miss. At age 23 he enlisted in the confederate army and fought to the end and was discharged a Lieutenant.

On November 8, 1866 he married Mary Elizabeth Peters. In 1871 Demarcus moved his family to his 700 acre farm, 3 miles southwest of Good Hope.

Demarcus and the men on the farm enjoyed going into Pearl River Swamp on a two or three day hunt. The women folk remembered the men coming home giving the "Rebel Yell".

Demarcus bought a work horse to plow but his daughter, Ida Lorene, discovered the horse had racing traits and enjoyed racing the horse over the country side to the consternation of The family.

Demarcus Fiske Porter and wife, Mary Elizabeth Peters are buried at Good Hope.

Ida Lorene Porter taught school at McVillie, where she met and married, John Nealy Pride. They are buried at Salem Baptist Church in Covington County, Miss. Where their daughter Idelle Evelyn Pride Pickering lives.

John Walker, the emigrant who lived in County Antrim, Ireland, brought his wife, Elizabeth Boyd, and four (4) of their five (5) children and his Mother to the new country, America.

They Sailed from Belfast on The Earl of Danigal and landed in Baltimore on December 22, 1767. John was 40, Elizabeth, wife, 32, Ch Andrew 12, Thomas 10, Jane 8 and Maeny 5.

The government gave him 350 acres of land. John was a farmer and cattleman and prospered. When the Revelation War broke out young Thomas joined and was soon captured and put in Camslen jail. Andrew Jackson the son of a poor widow neighbor was also captured and put into the cell with him. A British officer ordered Andrew Jackson to clean and polish his boots for him, Andrew refused to obey. The officer struck him on the head with his sword, the scar was carried to his grave.

Thomas Sister Jane decided to carry some goodies to her brother and as it was around 50 miles to the prison and thru enemy territory she selected their best horse and started early. She got there safely before dark and talked her way in to visit her brother and divided food with Andrew Jackson and started home at dark. She had gone only a short way before her horse went lame. She heard a horse near by that had been turned out to graze so she swapped horses and got home safely by morning. The horse she took was a British Officer's horse but he never found out who got his horse.

Andrew decided to free his brother so he organized a company of his father's cow-boy's and as their Capt. they set out to capture enough Tories to exchange for American Patriots. The going exchange rate then was 13 Tories for 1 patriot. Among those released from Camslen were his brother Thomas and the future president of the United States, Andrew Jackson.

Andrew Walker served until the end of the War.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pickering

Dear Cousins,

I was very glad to receive your letter with the maps and the information on the land holdings of D. F. Porter. Please pardon my delay in replying. As you can see from the enclosed map, I have been playing with the scissors and tape! Some time ago I purchased the U. S. Geological Survey maps for most of Winston, Choctaw, and Oktibbeha counties. I find them very useful in understanding where people lived and who their neighbors were. I am returning your map, but I have added on some adjoining areas. A separate enclosed page is a key to identify the various land holdings outlined on the map. The land holdings are those of Andrew Walker Porter, his son William Morrison Porter, his widowed daughter-in-law Nancy C. Porter and her two sons Olin Bascom Porter and William Walker Porter. I also outlined the farm where I grew up, the farm of my parents Lee and Neva Porter Weeks.

The map I have put together for you stretches from New Prospect and Concord Church in Choctaw County to Webster and Antioch Church in Winston County. Andrew Walker Porter and his wife are buried in the old Blackwood Cemetery on their farm. There is absolutely no sign of the old house place there. The widowed Mrs. William Morrison Porter and Mr. and Mrs. William Walker Porter are buried in Antioch Baptist Church Cemetery at Webster. (Mrs. Wm. M. Porter was buried there because her mother and other relatives were buried there earlier. She married in this part of the county in 1848. Remember that A. W. Porter first settled in 1835 in Winston County east of Webster.) Mr. and Mrs. Olin Bascom Porter and most of their children, including my grandparents, are buried in Concord Baptist Church Cemetery at New Prospect. New Prospect and Webster were once thriving villages, but they are now just remembered names. New Prospect was the post office for A. W. Porter and Mrs. Wm. M. Porter and O. B. Porter. Webster was the post office for W. W. Porter and my Weeks ancestors. Please note in the settlement papers of A. W. Porter's estate that public notices were posted at Webster, at New Prospect, and at Lowry's Mill. Lowry's Mill was located on Lowry's Branch. Lowry's Branch is also known as Bearfoot Branch. The branch flows into the Noxubee River just north of my parents' farm.

The Gum Branch community did not have a church until the 1920's when Gum Branch Baptist Church was organized. Among the charter members were the W. W. Porters. However, there is no cemetery at Gum Branch Church. My father is buried at Bethel Methodist Church just across the Oktibbeha County line. My Weeks ancestors were Methodists, and generations of the family are buried at Bethel Church.

The name "Gum Branch" is mistakenly printed as "Gum Springs" on every federal map I have ever seen. Some map maker made a mistake years ago, and it has been perpetuated throughout the years. The little stream called Gum Branch is lined in yellow on your map. It begins in a farm pond across the road from Gum Branch Church and flows only a few miles to the Noxubee River. It gave its name in this century to a church and a country school.

Andrew Walker Porter's farm land was hilly. If you remember from your visit to the Blackwood Cemetery, the land was not level at all. Apparently the land was productive, however. O. B. Porter, W. W. Porter, and my Weeks ancestors farmed the bottom lands of the Noxubee River. Of course, they still lived in the hills up along the main roads because of periodic flooding by the river. The river bottom lands are still very fertile. Much of the hilly land lost its fertility long ago, prompting the government purchase of large tracts of land and the creation of the national forest.

Once again, I hope this map will be helpful to you in seeing where the Porters lived in Winston County. You stated that you were planning to publish a chart of the Porter and Walker lines. Please let me know more. I would like to purchase a copy. I enjoyed receiving your letter and look forward to hearing from you again.

Sincerely yours,

Bill Weeks

Andrew Walker Porter

Andrew Walker Porter, the pioneer ancestor of the Porter family in Winston County, was born on June 9, 1802, in Mecklenburg District, North Carolina. He was the son of James Porter and wife Catherine Walker. He was named for his maternal grandfather, Capt. Andrew Walker, a native of Ireland and a veteran of the Revolutionary War. On February 10, 1823, Andrew W. Porter married Mary McKee Morrison in Mecklenburg District. Mary was the daughter of Dr. William Morrison and wife Mary Susannah Houston. She was the granddaughter of Neil Morrison, a signer of the Mecklenburg Resolves in May, 1775.

In the 1820's the Porter family moved from North Carolina to Perry County Alabama. In the 1830's Andrew Walker Porter moved his family to Winston County and entered his first claim for government land in January, 1835. He purchased some 480 acres of land in the northeastern part of the county, east of Webster.

By the mid-1850's the Porters had moved to north central Winston County near the Oktibbeha and Choctaw County line. In November, 1854, Andrew W. Porter and his oldest son William purchased 1,040 acres of the Peter Crawford estate. They then lived not far from New Prospect, which was their mailing address. Andrew and Mary Porter lived in the two-story Crawford home. When they died, they were buried on their farm in the old Crawford Family Cemetery (now known as the Blackwood Cemetery).

Andrew Walker Porter died on April 19, 1866, after having been kicked by a mule. His wife Mary died on March 14, 1874. They were the parents of eight children: William Morrison Porter, James A. Porter, Margaret Agnes Porter McDuff, Louisa J. Porter Leigh, Genia Adeline Porter Woodward, Demarcus Fisk Porter, Mary S. Porter Fletcher, and J. Fletcher Porter.

William Morrison Porter

William Morrison Porter was the oldest son of Andrew Walker Porter and wife Mary McKee Morrison. He was born on December 29, 1823, in Mecklenburg District, North Carolina, and was named for his maternal grandfather, Dr. William Morrison. He moved with his parents to Alabama while a small child and then to Winston County while a teenager.

On December 14, 1848, William M. Porter married Nancy C. Wallace in Winston County. She was the daughter of Isaiah Wallace and wife Susannah H. Standifer. Nancy was born in Monroe County, Mississippi, on February 8, 1831. William M. Porter was a farmer with his father, first in northeastern Winston County and after 1854 in the north central part of the county.

William Morrison Porter by the 1860's suffered with tuberculosis. As a result, he was not conscripted into service nor did he join the Confederate Army until late in the Civil War. He enlisted on October 19, 1864, as a private in the Winston Guards, Company A, 13th Regiment of Mississippi Infantry, C.S.A. This company was among those surrendering at Appomattox Court House, Virginia, on April 9, 1865. However, William Morrison Porter had been discharged earlier in March due to his health. He was able only to reach Union County, North Carolina, his birthplace which formerly was part of Mecklenburg District. He had developed pneumonia and died at the home of his uncle, James Houston Morrison, on March 18, 1865. He was buried in Sandy Ridge Cemetery in Union County.

After the Civil War and her husband's death, Nancy Wallace Porter moved westward in Winston County and purchased the John Kennedy farm nearer New Prospect. This area of Winston County was detached and added to Choctaw County in 1874, so the Porters became residents of Choctaw County. Nancy Wallace Porter died on October 11, 1918, and was buried at Antioch Baptist Church Cemetery in Winston County.

William Morrison Porter and wife Nancy were the parents of seven children: Sarah Ann Matilda Porter Turner, Mary Arvazene Porter Griffith, Olin Bascom Porter, Louella Porter Shaw, William Walker Porter, Lucy Susannah Porter Bailey, and Nancy Alice Porter Haines. The older son Olin B. Porter married Mary C. Blackwood and lived on the family farm in Choctaw County. The younger son Walker Porter married Elizabeth Matilda Hamill and lived at Gum Branch, Winston County.

William Walker Porter

William Walker Porter of Gum Branch, Winston County, was the son of William Morrison Porter and wife Nancy C. Wallace. He was born in Winston County on August 24, 1858, and was married on January 4, 1883, to Elizabeth Matilda Hamill. Lizzie Hamill had been born on February 21, 1861, and was the only surviving child of Charles Oliver Hamill and wife Mary F. Roach. Her father had died at Atlanta in the Civil War while a member of Captain Ford's Company of the 2nd Regiment of Mississippi Partisan Rangers (Col. Ballentine's Regiment of Cavalry). Her grandparents James and Matilda Hamill were early settlers of northern Winston County.

The W. W. Porter farm in the Gum Branch community was originally the C. O. Hamill farm. The Porter farmhouse was constructed on the site of an earlier Hamill residence. Part of the house was built in 1885 in Choctaw County with wooden pegs and square nails and was moved to Winston County in 1886, when the remainder of the structure was finished.

Walker Porter was a Mason and a Baptist. He and his wife were charter members of Gum Branch Baptist Church. Their only child was a son who died at the age of ten months. Consequently, upon the death of their nephew William Emmette Porter in 1920, they brought into their home the widow Kittie Porter and her three children. The three children were Neva, Walton, and William Porter.

Elizabeth Matilda Hamill Porter died on April 1, 1927. William Walker Porter died on October 25, 1940. They both were buried at Antioch Cemetery. Their niece Sarah Catherine (Kittie) Love Porter died on August 4, 1941. Neva Porter married Alvin Lee Weeks and lives in the Gum Branch community. Walton Porter married Ruth Vickers and lived on the family farm at Gum Branch until his death on October 27, 1976. William Porter married Margaret Roberts and now lives in Louisville.

Mrs. Archie J. Pickering
Route 4, Salem Church Road
Collins, Mississippi 39428

Dear Mrs. Pickering:

I was glad to receive your recent letter regarding the Porter family. I am interested in the history of our Porter line and am always glad to share any records I have.

I am descended from Andrew Walker Porter of Winston County through his oldest son, William Morrison Porter. I am descended through William Morrison Porter's oldest son, Olin Bascom Porter. I am descended through Olin Bascom Porter's oldest son, William Emmette Porter. My mother, Neva Porter Weeks, is the oldest child and only daughter of William Emmette Porter.

When you were in Louisville recently did you talk with any of the Porter descendants still in Winston County? Did you visit the cemetery where Andrew Walker Porter and family are buried? I don't know just what records you found on Andrew Walker Porter in the courthouse at Louisville, but I am enclosing some data that might interest you.

Andrew Walker Porter was one of the earliest settlers of Winston County. He entered his first claim for government land in northeastern Winston County in January, 1835. Over the next year he bought some 480 acres of land in Twp. 15 N and Twp. 16 N, Rge. 14 E. This is northeast of Louisville and east of Webster on the enclosed map of pre-Civil War Winston County.

By the mid-1850's the Porters had moved to extreme north-central Winston County in Twp. 16 N, Rge. 12 E. In November, 1854, Andrew Walker Porter bought 700 acres of the Peter Crawford estate, and his son William Morrison Porter bought an additional 340 acres of the Crawford estate. (see the enclosed copy of one of these deeds) This was to be the last home for these two men. They lived not too far from New Prospect, which was their mailing address. Andrew Walker Porter and his wife Mary (Polly) McKee Morrison Porter thus lived in the old two story Crawford home. When they died, they were buried on their farm in the old Crawford Family Graveyard (now known as the Blackwood Graveyard). This area today is part of the Tombigbee National Forest and the Choc-taw Wildlife Management Area. My parents live about four miles to the east in northern Winston County.

According to family tradition, Andrew Walker Porter died after being kicked by a mule. (see the enclosed records of the settlement of his estate) He died in 1866 after having lost two sons in the Civil War. J. Fletcher Porter, who died May 10, 1862, is buried beside his father in the Blackwood Graveyard. The other son, my great-great-grandfather William Morrison Porter, died on March 18, 1865.

William Morrison Porter suffered with tuberculosis. As a result, he did not join the Confederate Army nor was he conscripted into service until very late in the Civil War. (see the enclosed unfinished letter by his daughter dated September 4, 1864) According to his wife, Nancy Wallace Porter, William M. Porter left home for the war on October 19, 1864. He enlisted in the Army on the same day at Marion, Mississippi, stating his age as 40 years, his birthplace as North Carolina, and his address as New Prospect. He was a private in the Winston Guards, Company A, 13th Regiment of Mississippi Infantry. This company was among those surrendering at Appomattox Court House, Virginia, on April 9, 1865, but William Morrison Porter was discharged earlier. The Centennial History of Winston County states that he was "discharged and died on the way home, 1865." Nancy Wallace Porter wrote that William "lefte campes for home the 10 of March 1865." William Morrison Porter was able only to reach Union County, North Carolina, his birthplace which once was part of Mecklenburg District. He had developed pneumonia and died at the home of his mother's brother, James Houston Morrison, on March 18, 1865. He was buried beside the Morrison family graves in Sandy Ridge Cemetery in Union County. The inscription from his grave marker, which incorrectly lists his age as 42 instead of 41, reads as follows:

"W. M. Porter, who fills a soldier's grave, died March 18, 1865, aged 42 years, 2 mos., and 19 das., leaving a wife and seven children in Mississippi."

Another of Andrew Walker Porter's sons, James A. Porter, was the captain of a company of Confederate troops organized in Winston County. This was Co. F of the Fifth Regiment of Mississippi Infantry, State Troops. After the war, he went first to Arkansas and then to Athens, Henderson County, Texas, where he died.

According to my records, your Demarcus F. Porter was a sergeant in Co. D, Fifth Regiment of Mississippi Infantry in the Civil War. That is about all I know about your Demarcus, except that he married M. E. Potens on November 8, 1866, in Winston County. Where did they live? Who were their children? When did they die, and where are they buried?

According to another cousin, Miss Carrie Louise Porter of Hattiesburg, our Andrew Walker Porter was the son of James Porter and his wife Catherine Walker Porter. You know this and mentioned it in your letter to me, so you must have corresponded with Miss Porter, also. I have not done any work to try to trace the family back any further. Do you have a copy of the family records from the James Porter family Bible? Miss Porter sent me a copy.

I am sure there must have been an Andrew Walker Porter family Bible, but I have never seen it. Have you ever heard of such a Bible? It was not handed down through the William Morrison Porter branch of the family. I do have now in my possession here in Nashville the William Morrison Porter family Bible. However, it does not even mention Andrew Walker Porter.

Have you ever corresponded with any descendants of Margaret Agnes Porter McDuff, Louisa J. Porter Leigh, or Mary S. Porter Fletcher? I would like to know something about their children. I have a copy of the Cenia Adeline Porter Woodward family Bible records.

Do write again. If I have any other records that you would like, or if I can help you in any way just let me know. I am, sincerely,

Your cousin,

Bill Weeks

Dear aunt I take the pleasant opportunity of dropping you a few lines to let you now that we are all well at present and hope these few lines may find you all well granpa of this is also well
And I believe all the rest of the kin is well uncle Jim has got another boy about 3 weeks old. Aunt Mary and granpa talked of going down to see you this summer
but I believe they have given it out I dont ever hear them say any thing about it. They made a call for 30 days pa didnt go they Notyfyed him but he wasnt able to go he is about like he was last fall only he spits up more blood than he did then.
uncle Jack Leigh went. Aunt Mary came over here one day last week and carded and spun. And she and ma carded and spun 8 cuts a piece and I carded and spun 7 cuts
We have got 50 yards of white cloth

Louis Benjamin Houston is the first Houston I have been able to trace. I know nothing of his parents.

Martha Amanda Porter's parents are:

Dad David Washington Porter — He is also found on the 1820 Census
b. 1782 Guilford County, N. C. for Giles County, Tn.
M. 1802 Margaret Rennick Crawford
d. 1856 Oxford, Miss.
wife Margaret Rennick Crawford
b. 1783 S.C.
d. 1867 Oxford, Miss.

I don't have anything more on the Crawford Line, but. David's children
My Typewriter just broke down. I hope you can read my writing.

Martha Amanda's Brothers & Sisters are listed as.

Reese (Reece?)^{Porter} 1804-1847

Est. Jean Brown Porter 1806-?

Eliza Craighoad 1809- Married in Giles County, Tn.

Elias Washington Porter 1811-1871

Mary Adelaide Porter 1814-1858

M. 1839- Milton G. Mayfield in Giles County, Tn.

David Newton Porter

b. 1824 - Tenn.

d. 1887 Oxford, Miss.

D.W. Porter^(age 68) & wife Margaret^(age 66) are found on the 1850 Census for Lafayette county, along with David N. age 26, and Three children Thomas W. Goodwin^{Goodwin}, age 14, Alphonsa R. age 12 & Mary M. Goodwin age 9. I don't know how these children fit into the picture, but in the 1860 Census for Lafayette County, family 1411 consists of Margaret Porter living with Thomas Goodwin & Mary Goodwin - Mary's age here is given as 21, so this is probably his wife, not the Mary M. who is 9 in 1850 & probably his sister. Remember that David died in 1856.

By the way Mary Adeleine Porter's Marriage is listed in the book - Marriages from Early Tennessee Newspapers 1794-1851 p. 325 by Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr. it reads - Mayfield, Mr. Milton G. married in Giles County to Miss Mary A. Porter daughter of David W. Porter Esq. National Banner & Nashville Adv. (Fri. Dec 21, 1832) - I don't

and UNDER the Editor's Desk

We've made ourself unpopular over the years by (among many other proven methods) snickering at the idea that a father should be a pal to his children.

Espousers of the pal-sy cause are people whose memories of their own childhoods must have grown dim with the years. Grown-ups make the most useless pals a child can be afflicted with.

During several early years the most fun is to be found in make-believe. How could you play a proper game of cops-and-robbers or cowboys-and-

Indians with some oaf of an adult lousing it up and trying, as they always do, to force HIS rules upon you.

And there is a period when the best fun of all is getting dirty — wallowing like a water buffalo in a nice, filthy mud puddle. Could this be done in company with pop, who might hold the silly belief that getting muddied-up is somehow wrong?

Later there are the days when nothing at all can beat a bit of mischief. In the 1920s and 30s, the favorite of our set was pulling trolley lines in the early evening.

Several boys would wait at a car stop while one hid himself in bushes 30 feet or so up the line. When the car stopped, the waiters slowly made as if to clamber aboard, while the lurker darted out from the rear and pulled the line that transmitted power from the electric cable to the car's motors.

There was no sound quite so sweet and nothing that brought such an exhilarating sense of achievement as the bellow that issued from the motor as we scampered off into laughing evilly.

Could you play the some game with the tagging-along?

Porter— Parsley

ESCATAWPA — Miss LeAnn Porter became the bride of Mr. Ray Parsley on December 3, 1988, in an evening candlelight service at Escatawpa Assembly of God Church. The Rev. Don Edeker and the Rev. Norman Busby officiated at the double-ring vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Porter Sr. of Pascagoula, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Parsley of Escatawpa.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white bridal satin fashioned with Venice laces and adorned with pearls and iridescents, its bodice accentuated with a Queen Ann neckline and long fitted sleeves. A full circular skirt fell from a Basque waistline to a cathedral length train with lace beaded pearls. She carried a cascade of pink roses and white satin flowers with touches of peacock colored sparkle gysophila.

Ms. Ramona Wells served her sister as matron of honor. Other attendants were Miss Melanie Plake of Big Point; Miss Stacy Goff of Hurley; Mrs. Tommy (Samantha) Vaughan of Gautier, and Mrs. Anthony (Teresa) Cole of Grandbay, Ala. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Dana Porter and Miss Kerri Porter of Wade, nieces of the bride. Miss Sammie Jo Watson of the Harleston Community was flower girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parsley

Mr. David Parsley of Big Point stood with his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Mr. James "Bubbie" Cripps of Hurley; Mr. Rainer Shattles of Wade; Mr. Allen Rudolph of Hurley, and Mr. Stephen Griffin of Escatawpa. Junior groomsmen were Scott Griffin and Stacy Griffin of Escatawpa, both nephews of the bride.

Ushers and candlelighters were Mr. Max Porter Jr. and Mr. David Porter Sr., both of Wade and brothers of the bride. Mr. David "Michael" Porter Jr. of Wade, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

A reception followed at the church fellowship hall. After a wedding trip to Pensacola, Fla., the couple is at home in Wade. A rehearsal dinner was held at the church fellowship hall.
